

About Amy Incaprera

I am so excited to be working for the St. Lawrence Catholic School community as the School Guidance Counselor. My passion for helping others overcome obstacles and achieve their goals is fulfilling to witness, and why I decided to become a counselor. I have been in the field of education for over fifteen years - both teaching and counseling students of all ages and grade levels. I earned my Bachelor's degree at the University of Notre Dame of Maryland and then went on to receive my Master's of Science from McDaniel College in Educational Counseling. I am fully certified in the state of Florida.

In my spare time, I enjoy spending time with my family, watching movies, and going to the beach.

Remember I am here to support your child and his or her education. Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at aincaprera@stlawrence.org I look forward to working with you and your child to make this an amazing and memorable school year.
